CITY AND COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER

A PRIVATE dispatch received yesterday informed us of the introduction by Steel, of Indiana, of charges preferred against Judge Barnes of this District; for unjustly and falsely imprisoning the proprietor of this paper, for criticizing his action while on the bench. Considering it of a semiprivate nature, we did not mention it in yesterday's issue, but inasmuch as the press dispatches contain a synopsis of the case as ptesented by Mr. Steele, and the case is again brought before the public, we will only state that this action against Judge Barnes has not been unexpected. A man would indeed be void of human feelings, and of an angelic disposition who would overlook the injury which was done him, and forget the pang of inteuse bitterness caused those who were responsible for that infamy perpetrated on Judiciary. The memorial cited the conspirators have been relegated Ragg, proprietor of the Tombstone to private life. The PROSPECTOR had the pleasure of encompassing their defeat. Judge Barnes alone remains in power, and that his poisonous fangs will soon be drawn and this county the power which the court possessed the coast of Africa, was received by have been rendered without a thought | The proprietor of the Prospector had of Bohalya, Muretin, August 17, adof justice, is just as certain as that revenge is sweet.
